About VersaFi

Elevating women
Strengthening finance
Advancing prosperity for all

VersaFi is a national, non-profit organization focused on elevating women in the finance sector to advance prosperity for all. Founded in 1995 as Women in Capital Markets (WCM), the organization rebranded in 2024, as VersaFi.

As Canada's largest network of women, allies, and leading finance sector organizations, we champion talent at every stage of the career journey: empowering individuals and shaping leaders; transforming individual success into industry-wide impact; and advancing a stronger, more competitive finance sector for all.

Our community has grown to a membership of more than 4,400 and 55+ corporate partners across the country representing the finance sector across banks, dealers, insurance companies, pension plans, regulatory agencies, exchanges, and advisory firms.
